Salem Seniors News

Thank You To:

- June Mainella and Sandy Swider for their efforts and fantastic job coordinating the "Restock The Teachers Shelves" program.

There were many "thank-yous" from the teachers as June and Sandy passed out the gifts to the teachers. One special thank-you note was forwarded to the Salem Seniors Group (SSG) Executive Board. (see below)

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Jessica Orenstein and I am a tutor at Salem School. I started the "Creative Kids Book Club" last year based on my passion for combining art and reading. It has been a great success and this year; I was able to offer TWO sessions! I have loved every minute! I do not receive financial compensation for holding the class and all supplies come out of my own pocket. This can be a challenge at times which made it all the more special and meaningful to me when I received a generous bag of supplies from the Salem Seniors. I was overjoyed by this unexpected (but much appreciated) gift which will certainly be put to good use. I wanted to extend my heartfelt thanks to whomever is responsible.

Thank you, Thank you!!!

All the best, Jessica Orenstein

Fire Company Donations

It is the time of year the Gardner Lake and Salem Volunteer Fire Companies mail out their annual donation requests. Since the SSG uses both facilities at no cost I ask you to consider making a donation if you are able and if you normally make a donation consider adding a little extra if you are able.

Topics include nutrition, maintaining and increasing lean muscle mass, community engagement and wellbeing, bone density, exercise and activity, avoiding UTIs, and of course, hormones. This one’s just for the girls!!

Step into Spring! – May 7th, from 12:00 PM -1:00 PM.

Emily Alves, RN, from Uncas Health District, will talk to us about safely preparing for Spring activity. In The Works

Looking Forward, Letting Go

As older adults, our stage of human development includes looking back and assessing our life. Are we satisfied with how we’ve lived our lives to date? Things we’ve done well, and things we think we could have done better? At the same time, today’s older adults are discovering that they’ve collected a lifetime of “stuff”, stuff of memories and reminders of special people and occasions. We’ve also discovered that our kids don’t want our stuff! Accumulations can lead to clutter and that can lead to hazards in the home, like falls. How can we accept our past, look forward to the future, and make peace with a house full of stuff? We will speak about emotional health of older adults and a professional home organizer will help us explore various ways of honoring our memories and bringing some order to our “collections”, and strategies for categorizing our things and deciding what we can let go of.

Delicious, Nutritious Dinners for One or Two

How many of us spent decades cooking for a houseful? Now we are faced with cooking for one or two. We will examine the nutritional needs for older adults and how to prepare easy, affordable, nutritious, and tasty meals for one or two.

Keep an eye out for Lunch, Learn, and Live flyers, announcements at our monthly meetings, & facebook page.

• Books in the Afternoon Book Club; Thursday, January 29th, at 1:00 PM.

"Lessons in Chemistry" by: Bonnie Garmus, Chemist Elizabeth Zott would be the first to point out that there is no such thing as an average woman. But it's the early 1960s and her all-male team at Hastings Research Institute takes a very unscientific view of equality. But like science, life is unpredictable. Which is why a few years later Elizabeth Zott finds herself a single mother and the reluctant star of America's most beloved cooking show Supper at Six. Her unusual approach to cooking ("combine one tablespoon acetic acid with a pinch of sodium chloride") proves revolutionary. But as her following grows, not everyone is happy. It turns out, Elizabeth Zott isn't just teaching women to cook. She's daring them to change the status quo.

Adults over 18 are welcome. To join the group, e-mail Christine Murtha at: murthachristine@yahoo.com.

Senior Resources Agency On Aging

Senior Resources is a private non-profit organization established in 1976 and authorized by the Older Americans Act of 1965 and state statute.
